

OLANCHA CARTAGO CORRIDOR STUDY

OPEN HOUSE EVENT

In anticipation of the realignment of Highway 395 through the communities of Olancha and Cartago, Inyo County has undertaken a study to rethink and reinvent the old corridor, which will become a county road. The study is looking for near and long-term recommendations for a vibrant street for residents, businesses, and visitors within these communities.

Please join us to imagine what the future of the historic US-395 could look like in Olancha and Cartago!
